ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

ANNUAL REPORT (2021-22)

Throughout the academic year 2021-2022, there were no reported instances of ragging on our campus, affirming our institution's unwavering commitment to a zero-tolerance policy against such behavior. To ensure a secure and inclusive environment for all students, we have established a specialized committee comprising faculty members, administrative staff, and student representatives tasked with promptly handling any ragging-related concerns that may arise.

INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE

ANNUAL REPORT (2021-22)

During the academic year 2021-2022, the institution achieved remarkable success in maintaining a safe environment, especially regarding handling sexual harassment complaints. Their effective and reliable grievance system encouraged students to feel at ease and empowered to raise any concerns, including those related to sexual harassment. An outstanding and praiseworthy outcome of these efforts was that not a single formal complaint regarding sexual harassment was lodged by any student throughout the entire academic year.
